

AmeriTales
Presents Abraham
Lincoln and the Forest of Little Pigeon Creek

Author/Illustrator: T.D.
Carter, Randy Jennings
(Illustrator)

Publisher: AmeriTales
Entertainment

Age Range: 4 to 10

This fictional action-adventure centers around Abraham Lincoln as a boy and his adventures overcoming fear in the forest. With his odd companion and best friend Jack, a turkey, Abe learns that through reading, he can learn about the world, and through understanding can overcome his fear. AmeriTales artfully combines fiction and fact to create a fun, interesting tale that will have your child giggling at Jack's commentary and enjoying every page of young Abe's exploits. —JK

