"I just wanted to let you know how much I appreciate the great service. As a network administrator, I make a lot of purchases from many different vendors. It's a great relief to find a source where I can easily find what I need, order quickly and easily, and count on receiving the items in a reasonable amount of time. Network glitches, balky servers, and user problems are enough - it's nice not to add procurement hassles to the list."

"...Thanks for your excellent efficiency and for delivering the product exactly as specified. Ordering over the internet from another country (Sydney, Australia) does not always produce this result, so I do appreciate it."
