Industry-leading purveyor of cable, wire and equipment management solutions ranks in the top 25% - position 126 - on the 2007 Inc. 500, with 3-year sales growth of 1,413.3%

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, August 27, 2007 – CableOrganizer.com (<http://CableOrganizer.com>), among the world's leading purveyors of cable, wire and equipment management-related products for use in business and at home, today announced it has been named on the 26th annual Inc. 500 list of fastest growing private companies in America, as revealed in the September issue of Inc. magazine (on newsstands August 28 – October 2). The company ranked in the top 25% of companies named on the coveted list - position number 126 - having realized astounding 3-year sales growth of 1,413.3%.

"This achievement puts you in very special company," notes Inc. magazine editor-in-chief John Koten. "The Inc. 500 recognized Microsoft®, Timberland®, Domino's Pizza®, and many other entrepreneurial companies long before they became household names. Familiar as we are with the many challenges associated with building and operating a business, all of us at Inc. are keenly aware what a tremendous achievement a spot on our list represents."

The 2007 Inc. 500 reported aggregate revenue of $16 billion and median three-year growth of 939%. Most important, the 2007 Inc. 500 companies were engines of job growth, having created more than 64,064 jobs since those companies were founded.

"If you want to find out which companies are going to change the world, look at the Inc. 500," said Inc. Editor Jane Berentson. "These are the most innovative, dynamic, fast-growth companies in the nation, the ones coming up with solutions to some of our most intractable ills, creating systems that let us conduct business faster and easier, and manufacturing products we soon discover we can't live without. The Inc. 500 list is Inc. magazine's tribute to American business ingenuity and ambition."

"We are deeply honored to receive this significant piece of recognition," said Paul Holstein, co-founder and COO of CableOrganizer.com. "Being named on this list further validates our well-honed approach to online retailing, and we're delighted to be named among such good company."

To qualify, companies had to be U.S.-based and privately held, independent – not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies – as of December 31, 2006, and have had at least $200,000 in revenue in 2003, and $2 million in 2006.

Companies can apply for next year's Inc. 500 and Inc. 5,000 by registering with IncBizNet, the new social network for private companies that will launch this fall on Inc.com.
