The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs open. The active tab is a CNBC video player. The video title is "Trading around St. Patrick's Day" and it is 56 minutes old. The video content shows Brent Wilsey, CEO of Wilsey Asset Management, discussing trading strategies for St. Patrick's Day, specifically mentioning Diageo and Gold Fields. The video player includes a progress bar at 0:07 / 2:05 and various control icons. Below the video, there are social media sharing options for Twitter, Facebook, Reddit, LinkedIn, Email, and Print. A "WATCH CNBC LIVE TV" button is also present. Below the video player, there is a "YOU MAY LIKE" section with five video thumbnails and their titles: "Final Trade: BAC, COH & more", "Cramer Remix: Here's the spending trend hiding right under money mangers' noses", "BOE keeps interest rates unchanged", "Trump stock what's working in economy right now", and "How to trade deregulation: 6 stocks". Below that is a "TOP VIDEO" section. At the bottom of the screen, the Windows taskbar is visible, showing the Start button, several open applications (Trad..., Edit..., THE..., Tem..., RE: i..., Sent..., Plac..., todo..., Cle..., .Trig..., Win..., Tea...), and the system tray with the date and time (10:41 PM 3/16/2017).
