

TECHNOLOGY

Local cable organizing company acquired

Fort Lauderdale-based CableOrganizer.com, an online retailer of electrical, telecom/datacom/networking, home theater, cable and wire management products, announced the majority stake investment/acquisition by KT Capital Partners, LP and CapitalSouth Partners Funds.

The company concurrently announced the appointment of new company Chief Executive Officer, Gerald P. Quindlen, who previously served as president and CEO of Logitech. Both company co-founders, Valerie and Paul Holstein, former CEO and COO, respectively, will retain a minority ownership position in the new company.

—Cindy Kent

