DENIZEN DESKING

(above) A collection of modern casegoods fits as easily in home as office settings, inspiring a new way of thinking about how the traditional office should be. Denizen bridges the gap of work and life by fusing insightful work process solutions with emotional aspects like beauty, comfort, and culture. www.coalesse.com

SPACESTATION LAPTOP DOCKING STATION

Give your laptop a lift. If the majority of your work is accomplished on a laptop computer instead of a desktop PC, one of the best updates you can make to your work environment is a laptop-oriented desk organizer, like the SpaceStation Laptop Docking Station by BlueLounge. This desktop fixture sets your laptop at an ergonomic position to reduce wrist stress, promote airflow under and around the computer, manage cables, and provide connectivity for up to four USB devices. It's the ultimate tech-savvy multitasker, disguised in a sleek and modernistic package. www.cableorganizer.com
