1. The Hanen Centre Preschool Language & Literacy Calendar

A hands-on calendar that lets parents incorporate simple techniques into their daily work and play routines to ensure their kids are prepared to enter school. Included is a pullout calendar that outlines everything a child needs to be prepared to enter school and how parents can deliver it. Best suited for parents with children ages one to five. Available to purchase at hanen.org.

2. Pengoloo – The Fun South Pole Eggspedition!

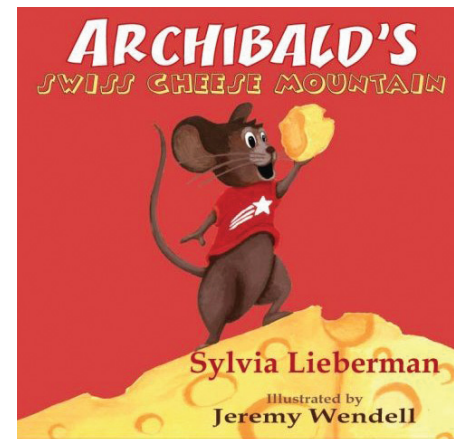

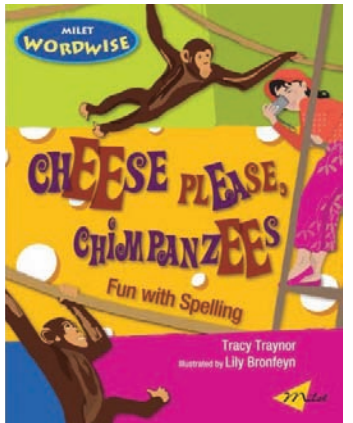

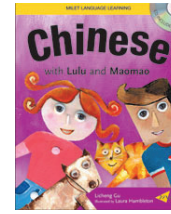

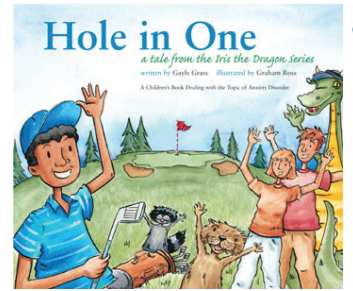

The great egg finding memory game. The penguins are ready to play with you. Roll two-colored dice and lift two wooden penguins to find the matching hidden eggs. Be the first to collect six penguins with their eggs on your iceberg to win. For more information visit blueorangegames.com. Available at local retailers.

3. Teach My Toddler

An award-winning, all-in-one learning system for toddlers. The toddler tote has 17 teaching tools to help toddlers master the basics: alphabet, numbers, shapes and colors. Each section is fully-coordinated with a total of 5 puzzles, 4 board books, 4 posters and 4 sets of flashcards, all in one handy carrying case. Suitable for 18 months+. For more information visit teach-my.com. Available to purchase at Gracie & Gruff.

4. Kidde® Battery Operated Carbon Monoxide/Smoke Combo Alarm

Includes a voice warning system that audibly states fire, carbon monoxide and low battery, among other warnings. Also features a 'smart hush activation' function allowing users to override the alarm when anticipating smoke from known sources. Because it's battery operated, even if the power goes out, the user is protected. Available to purchase at cableorganizer.com.
