

the MUST LIST

things we love right now

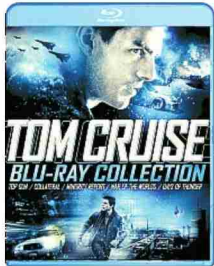

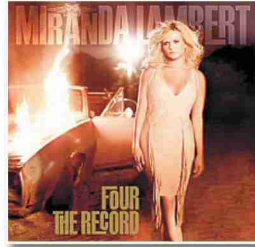

MUST APPRECIATE

Brit brute to hot cop: Our newest crush, Jason Isaacs, who played Lucius Malfoy in the Harry Potter movies, is having a big year. He starred as troubled detective Jackson Brodie in "Case Histories," which just completed a three-episode run on PBS (catch it online at pbs.org or on DVD), and he's set to star in "Awake," a midseason replacement show for NBC. We can't get enough of him.

MUST LISTEN

Miranda Lambert: The former "Nashville Star" contestant shows her range of emotion with her fourth album, appropriately titled "Four the Record." It's wowing the critics — and we like it, too!

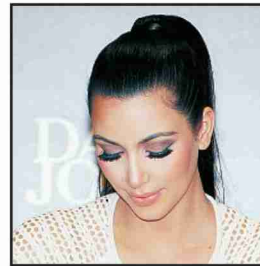

MUST IMMERSE

10-plus hours of Tom: If you don't happen to run into Tom Cruise at a local restaurant while he's in town filming "One Shot," you still can catch him in some of his most famous roles — "Top Gun," "Days of Thunder," "Minority Report," "War of the Worlds" and "Collateral" — on a new five-movie Blu-ray collection from Paramount ($57.99).

MUST. TURN. AWAY.

Kardashian breakup: Need we say anything more?

MUST COMFORT

Soft Kitty: Fans of "The Big Bang Theory" will want to curl up with this plush kitty ($29.99). Squeeze the paw, and it sings Sheldon's favorite childhood song. Buy alone or package it with a silky T-shirt ($44.99-$47.99) at www.stylinonline.com.
